Founded in 1979, the Atlanta Community Food Bank currently distributes almost 2 million pounds of food and other donated grocery items each month to more than 800 nonprofit partner agencies in 38 counties in Metro Atlanta and North Georgia. The Food Bank supports a wide range of people in need, from children to the working poor. Food pantries, community kitchens, childcare centers, night shelters and senior centers are among the agencies that receive product from the Food Bank and provide food and other critical resources for low-income Georgians who suffer from hunger and food insecurity. The Food Bank also operates several community projects to aid their agencies in community building, technical assistance and advocacy efforts.

Local Conferences throughout North Georgia sponsor food pantries for clients in need. After the initial home visit the Conference home visitors assess the need and determine the appropriate assistance response. Conferences either deliver food to the individual or invite the individual to come to the pantry. In certain circumstances, the Conference may collaborate with the Client Choice Pantry at the CSC in Chamblee to fulfill or increase the grocery assistance. For assistance request, call the Direct Aid line at 770-458-9607.
